

---

eGovRTD2020: Roadmapping eGovernment research 2020

Joint workshop with eGovernet project
Prague, 11th April 2007

Maria Wimmer

Project facts

- Specific support action under the EC 6th Framework Program of IST
  - Specific objective 2.4.9: ICT research for innovative government
- 9 Partners
  - 7 from five EC member states, 1 from USA, 1 from Australia
- Budget
  - Overall project budget: EUR 643.034,--
  - EC grant to the budget: EUR 523.000,--
- Duration
  - Start: 1st January 2006
  - Duration: 15 months (extension of 2 months requested)
- Human resources
  - 78,5 Person-months
- URL: <http://www.egovrtd2020.org/>

Project Partners

- University of Koblenz-Landau (coordinator), Germany
- Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands
- Center for Technology and Innovation Management, Germany
- Mykolas Romeris University, Lithuania
- University of Maribor, Slovenia
- European Institute of Public Administration - CEFASS, Italy
- Systemes Informatique de Gestion, France
- The Australian National University, Australia
- Center for Technology in Government, University at Albany, USA

Overall objectives of the project

- Identify and characterize key research challenges and an implementation model for dynamic governments in 2020
  - Develop visionary scenarios of eGovernment for 2020
  - Develop a detailed research roadmap for the transformation process
- Vision
  - transform the EC Government landscape into a coherent community
  - contribute to the development of the EC as a leading knowledge society

eGovRTD2020 Methodology

Underlying framework

---

Further details and the deliverables from the project are available at:

<http://www.egovrtd2020.org/>